Early advice of 'Watchful Waiting', a medical term from Urologist - meaning just that - do nothing. This I didn't follow.

14/9/06 Courier Mail: (part) Prostate cancer gains attention. While many men prefer to hide from the prospect of prostate cancer it has become one of the most serious conditions in Australia, with 10,000 men diagnosed each year and a further 2500 dying from it. This makes it the second largest (after lung) cause of male cancer in the country. As many men die from prostate cancer as women do from breast cancer.

20/8/06 Courier Mail: (part) Bias on cancer drug. Women fighting breast cancer can get the chemotherapy drug Taxotere free on prescription under the Pharmaceutical Benefit Scheme. But men with prostate cancer who don't have private medical insurance have to pay almost $3000 for each treatment. Some patients need up to 20 treatments making it impossibly expensive for many ($60,000).

It has cost me for Essential Oils approximately $25,000 over 30 months to January 08. This is money well spent, for I could not take it with me to the grave - where I was surely heading. I finally had Young Living clinical treatment in Ecuador early 08 and am now not on medication of any sort. Feeling good - you bet!
